A PARTNERSHIP BUILT ON NEW CONTENT POSSIBILITIES

For REEVO, this partnership is about giving operators more than a bigger catalogue. It is about expanding what that catalogue can offer.

Market Games brings a new type of interactive entertainment to the REEVO ecosystem, combining simple prediction mechanics, rapid round results, and market-inspired gameplay designed for today's fast-moving players.

Through REEVO, operators can now access a content category that feels different, intuitive, and built for quick mobile engagement.

WHY THIS PARTNERSHIP MATTERS

A new content category through REEVO

Market Games introduces market-inspired prediction and trading-style gameplay to the REEVO aggregation platform.

Fast, intuitive gameplay

Players predict the direction of the market, with results delivered in just 2 to 4 seconds

Mobile-first entertainment

Tap Markets and Tap Trading are built for quick, simple, and interactive player sessions.

MARKET GAMES

"Our goal is to give players a reason to explore something new. Through our partnership with REEVO, we can bring these experiences to a global network of operators and establish the foundation for an entirely new gaming category."

Yoni Avital - Founder, Market Games

REEVO

"Market Games brings something genuinely different to our ecosystem with a new style of fast, intuitive, mobile-first entertainment. This partnership gives our operators another way to expand beyond traditional content categories through one REEVO integration."

Daniel Cuc - Head of Account Management, REEVO
